United States Attorney Deborah Gilg and the Federal Bureau of Investigation announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

Senior United States District Court Judge Lyle E. Strom sentenced Kylan Dale to 36 months of imprisonment and five years of supervised release for his conviction for sexual abuse of an adult female. The victim had been drinking during the evening of July 3, 2010, and eventually passed out in her own bed in her home on the Omaha Indian Reservation. Shortly after midnight, she awoke to find Dale on top of her engaged in sexual intercourse. At first the victim did not know who it was, but she pushed Dale off of her and followed him out into a lighted hallway where she was able to recognize him. Dale was a friend of the family and had been a guest in the home at the time of the incident.
